June 9th is fine. Generally, we have a private reception between 5:00 and 6:00 for the Trustees of the Princeton Library in New York and any guests Mr. Bharara would like to invite. This is followed by dinner at 6:00. The talk is at 7:30 to 8:15 followed by a brief question and answer if the speaker is agreeable. The trustees include the Princeton University and rare book librarians, several publishers, writers, and assorted other club members.

The Club will provide adequate security and preregister all guests. The librarian at the Princeton Club will contact you with further details prior to the event.

Please contact me if you have any questions. Thank Mr. Bharara for his kindness. It is very much appreciated.

Yes, the event is off the record and only for Princeton Club members. (b)(6) will make that announcement when he does the introduction. In the past, he also introduced (b)(6) Mr. (B)(6) Giuliani and Mr. Spitzer -- all of which were off the record.

(B)(6) wondered if you would give us a few dates that would work in June. He was thinking any evening June 1st through the 4th or June 8th through the 11th. Then he would run those dates by the Club and get back to you.

Those dates unfortunately do not work for the U.S. Attorney. His schedule in May is very busy, so is June a possibility?

Thanks,
